Course and Instructor Evaluation:

1. How much do you think you've learned from this course?

No.	Very Little	A Little	A Fair Amount	A Lot	A Great Deal	Comments
1					1	This course really opened my eyes to a lot of social issues. It also confirmed opinions I already sort of had, but were considered crazy back home (I come from a conservative town).

2. How helpful were the course materials used by the instructor? (Consider, for example, the syllabus, assigned readings, films, handouts, and/or website, etc.)

No.	Poor	Fair	Good	Very Good	Excellent	Comments
1				1		I thought the best book was Nickel and Dimed because it was the most engaging. The topic overview before the exams was also really helpful!

3. How effective was the instructor in conducting the class sessions? (Consider, for example, the efficient use of class time to promote learning, the clarity and quality of instructor presentations, opportunities for active student involvement, etc.)

No.	Poor	Fair	Good	Very Good	Excellent	Comments
1				1		I really liked the lecture style because it's how I learn best. It was also cool that students were able to conduct their own lessons because we had to know the material enough to teach it instead of just regurgitating it.
2				1		I would have appreciated less time with student presenters. They really weren't helpful in helping me delve deeper into the texts or learn sociology.
3					1	good & engaging lectures
4					1	very helpful in explaining concepts
5				1		I feel having an engaged class discussion would be better than running through powerpoints

Last Thoughts:

What were you not asked above that you would like to say about this class?

No.
1
2	It could be helpful to have a policy around the use of pejorative language in class. Discussing "Dude, you're a F★★" was very difficult for me to sit through because of how casually people used that word.

6
7
8
9	My only comment is that the professor had a clear political agenda. I think that may have made some students (who didn't share it's agenda) hesitant to speak.

19	Honestly probably one of the best taught classes I've ever taken.
