

SOC 101 FINAL PROJECT

Visual Essay~ Representing Social Inequality

You may complete this assignment either individually or in pairs. When you have completed your assignment you need to post it on BlackBoard in the discussion board forum entitled "Final Project Forum". The assignment is due by 12 noon on Tuesday Dec 7th. Students who complete the assignment by the 1st when we begin sharing them will receive 2pts extra credit.

Step 1 - Gather some digital photos of the world in which you live, that you feel touch on issues of race, class, gender, social inequality and stratification. You can take photos yourself if you have a digital camera or you can find images online to share.

Step 2 - Using presentation software (such as PowerPoint) incorporate your own photos and captions to create a slideshow. Your slideshow should use your own words and images to express the way power, privilege and social inequalities are visible in the world around you. Your slideshow should contain at least 10-15 images for individual project and 20-30 images for pair project, it should also captions to make connections between the images and ideas from the course.

Grading Rubric (20 pts)

A	Well chosen and thought provoking images, appropriately captioned and makes a clear connection to the course material
B	Generally through provoking images, limited captions and a list a general connection to course materials
C	Images are somewhat related to the material, but not clearly relevant, limited or missing captions
D	No captions, irrelevant or offensive images, too short or not fully completed