

GRADE	DESCRIPTION
0	The post adds no academic value to the discussion. No new information is presented
1	The post contains at least one usable fact or piece of information. However, the fact or information is not related to any ideas learned from the reading assignments, or is not related to the discussion topic
2	The post contains at least one usable fact or piece of information related to the discussion topic.
3	The post makes a substantial contribution to the discussion topic. Material, including personal life experiences related to the topic, or a discussion of current events, is included that is not available just by reading the textbook, or some issue or concept is clarified.
4	The post contains documented information that contributes greatly to the understanding of the topic under discussion. The new information is explained and applied such that the reader gains a new insight into the material being studied.